The Term "Container Grown Plants" Has a Whole New Meaning

Join us for the OHA's 103rd Convention In Peterborough

Nestled on the banks of the Otonabee River is Trent University, our home for the 103rd OHA Convention.

From July 10th to 12th, 2009, District 4 welcomes you to stay in the residence at the new Gzowski College where you will be handy to all the planned functions. Sign up for a boat tour of Peterborough's famous Lift Lock. Our banquet speaker will be Martin Galloway.

Many come to Peterborough and the surrounding area to escape the busy cities and to relax. Why not make a vacation of the Convention? Stay awhile and explore. Whether you come for the business of the OHA or to spend time with friends, be prepared to be well cared for next July in Peterborough.

* November 30 - Annual Meeting & Christmas Show

ATTENTION !

The Christmas Show and Annual Meeting will be held this year on NOVEMBER 30....not Dec.7.

The CNIB is booked every Dec. by a charitable organization, and we are only able to use the facility if Sunday falls before the 4th of Dec.

Ladies' Gardening Hats

The Society will be selling garden hats (for the ladies) as a fund raiser this year. The hats come in one size with an adjustable band so that they can fit any woman's head. The logo (below) will be embroidered on the front of the hat. They will sell for $20.00 (tax included) and will be available for pickup at the November meeting. We will take orders again at the October meeting. If you prefer, you can also mail me a cheque made out to the Sudbury Horticultural Society but I must receive payment before the end of October so that they can be ordered and embroidered before the November meeting.

Wayne Hugli

Floral Design Demonstration

Call Claire at 524-0670 to reserve your seat for the demonstration of Christmas floral designs at Lougheeds flower shop on Eyre Street, Sunday, Nov.16.

Seed Collecting

We are planning a "Seed Swap". Start now to collect the seeds you have aplenty...allow to dry, then store (labelled) in paper (not plastic). Bring to the meeting, Oct 26.

Photos

Start taking photos now of fall gardens for next year's calendar project...and also for the photo classes.

Scabby Potatoes - Potato scab is prevalent in alkaline soils. If you have scabby potatoes, try treating with dusting sulphur and mixing into soil an acid peat. Also use acid or neutral fertilizers such as ammonium sulphate, ammonium phosphate, superphosphates, or sulphate of potash. Do not use wood ashes !

A Checklist for Winterizing Your Garden

The best time to prepare your garden for spring is in the fall. Just a single weekend of winter preparation will make a huge difference next growing season. Not only that, but the more you do now the less there is to do in the spring. So here is a checklist to guide you...modify it to suit your individual needs.

- A Plant spring bulbs for colour.
 - A Plant new perennials...they're on sale now !!
Water until freeze-up.
 - A Divide perennials like peonies, daylilies, and early spring bloomers.
 - A Apply a layer of compost to your beds.
 - A Before the snow flies, cut back perennials to 10 – 15 cm.
 - A Water conifers and broadleaf evergreens until freeze-up.
 - A Where able, burlap the exposed evergreens to prevent desiccation during the winter.
 - A Don't forget to wrap upright junipers & shrubs that may suffer under the snow weight.
 - A Install tree guards so that mice, voles, etc can't girdle them.
 - A Remove and dispose of any diseased foliage ...not in the compost!
 - A Burlap or mulch tender perennials, azaleas, rhododendrons, etc.
 - A Dig up and store dahlia, canna, glads, etc. (tubers/corms/rhizomes).
 - A Protect roses by mulching, or by wrapping with burlap or with commercially available wraps.
 - A Start cutting the grass shorter, and collecting the clippings and leaves for next years compost.
 - A Bring in clay pots.
- The list could go on and on. It's time to get started...the F.R.O.S.T. is coming ...

WEB SITE of the MONTH

Tired of maintaining a lawn ? Check out this web site now to see what alternatives are available for next season.

www.wildflowerfarm.com

Wildflower Farm's Natural Garden Centre offers low maintenance and sustainable Wildflower Seed Mixes designed to suit your specific site conditions, your landscaping plans and your budget!

Their extensive online Planning Information pages provide step by step ecological gardening tips for wildflower gardens and meadows. They are a good source for nursery grown Native North American perennial wildflowers, native grasses and wildflower seed mixes. Also, they give free seminars !

You can shop in the Native Plant Nursery & Gift Shop and take a stroll through the colourful acres of Native Botanical Gardens brimming with butterflies and song birds. Wildflower Farm is located at 10195 Hwy. 12 West, on the Trans-Canada Highway, just 10 km west of Orillia. Click on the web site for a map and more information... and plan to visit next summer.

Autumn Show Photos
